ABOUT THE SESSION:

This session will present nine ways to view and develop literacy in the second language classroom, from reading as decoding to reading as comprehension, reading as practice, reading as motivation, reading as learning, reading as socio-emotional interaction, reading as a habit, reading as identity formation, and reading as an informed citizen. Participants shall experience activities related to each and leave with a set of tips for teachers and students.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR

Olenka Bilash is a professor of second language education in the Department of Secondary Education at the University of Alberta in Edmonton. She has worked with teachers of many second languages on five continents and values every encounter as an opportunity to learn from and with one another! Her areas of interest are the professional development of teachers, second language teaching and learning, international teacher education, and action research.
